Early But Busy.

A prominent politician said yesterday that there would be not less than ten candidates seeking the democratic nomination for Sheriff at the coming primary, which is almost two years off. Four have announced so far, and they have already begun to solicit votes. This race promises to be one of the most hotly contested in years.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

The Only Baking Powder Made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Chemists' tests have shown that a part of the alum from pie crust made with an alum baking powder passes into the stomach, and that digestion is retarded thereby.

Read the label and make sure that your baking powder is not made from alum.

Barnes Spoke.

At Nicholasville last week Rev. E. B. Barnes spoke to a crowded house in the afternoon of last Sunday day on the subject of local option and delivered one of the most forceful addresses ever heard in Jessamine capital. Mr. Barnes is a gifted speaker and he brought out all the strong points in favor of local option in a plain and masterful manner. He pointed out to the people of Nicholasville the prosperous town of Richmond for an example against the liquor traffic, and showed where this town had gained in every way since saloons were abolished. The Nicholasville papers declare the Mr. Barnes talk made many votes for the temperance cause.

One Conductor Helped Back To Work.

Mr. Willard Adams is his name, and he writes, "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky. Street Railway. It will do it for you in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy always rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. Specially recommended for elderly people. Sold by Stockton & Son.

Two Dandies.

Hundreds of people who have taken advantage of the pretty weather of late to drive out the Lexington and Irvine pikes are loud in their praise of these roads since they were converted into modern pikes by Commissioner John Shearer and his able force, backed by Judge Shackelford and the Fiscal court. The Lexington pike is the finest in the state and the road from Richmond to Waco is equally as good. People residing along these roads who aided the county by subscribing to the pike fund, declare they would not kick even if they had put up $300 per mile. Instead of $100, now that they have such a fine road. There are three other roads leading out of the city, and first one to comply with the recent rule will be next to get the attention of the force of modern pike builders. The Barnes Mill and Taylor's fork road is now being put in excellent condition, the citizens along that route having been quick to subscribe as soon as they saw what had been done on the other roads.

This Is Why I'm For Dry.

In this recent great fight, Where wrong waged against right, But our noblest and best of men Were determined to defeat this great sin:

This is why I'm for Dry.

'Tis said of our younger set, Very much to our regret, They did their good morals forget, And voted wet;

That's why I'm for Dry.

But we surely ought to feel best For the good men who did their best: Words are inadequate to express Our joy at their success:

This is why I'm for Dry.

So to you, Mr. whiskey man, Bring in barrels by the ten, There is surely coming a day, Do and say what you may, When you will be laid on the shelf And we will protect you from yourself; E. P. B. This is why I'm for Dry.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be overestimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me." Good results always follow the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. They are a prompt corrective of urinary irregularities. Try them. Sold by Stockton & Son.

Misses Nell Donnelly and Mary Conway will take pleasure in showing the many beautiful creations in spring and summer millinery at Elder's store. Drop in.

A wide prediction from the Winches McCree in the Democratic Primary and O'Rear against the field in the Republican party and it will be against O'Rear in November. There will be a stirring campaign, a thrilling battle and a good man elected Governor.

Last night a lesson to Judge Reid and to be a cat paw for the Winches. McCree and O'Rear who take of his coat and get in the light for the best Governor ever had. He saw the hand writing on the wall and acted wisely.

Dean old Portland Davis is having more troubles with her piano people about closing the restaurant, cigar counters and soda fountains on Sunday.
It seems as if the more up-to-date clubs have administered defeat to the claim of business-crying for such laws.

Last week, W. H. H. Floyd county and gave such big majority for Beckham in the famous senatorial primary. There are only 200 Democrats in the county, but Beckham carried it by something like 800. Right in John Macy's county, too.

The Grand old Governor, Simon
Beckham, was eighty-eight last Saturday, and is still hale and hearty at his home in Hart county. He enjoys the distinction of being the only surviving Lieutenant General of the Civil War.

If the war cloud doesn't hurry up and "burst" the news will be a dead one for sure, for the base ball season is on,
and the correspondents at the front will have their matter pushed to the back pages.

According to the Louisville papers
the Seelbach hotel gets all the trade from the rural districts of the state.
"Stopping at the Seelbach" seems to be stereotyped for the personal and political affairs of Louisville papers.

Two military styles this year show that the creators of such are still candids for the asylum. One is unduly eddy an African chief model, but we forget the name.

Who said Tom Johnson wasn't a game man? The whole country would know him, but he seems to be on the road to recovery, and here's hoping he'll pull through.

If Judge Reid had remained in the race until after that Hopkinsville speech and reception tendered Senator McCree, he would have been more feverish to withdraw than before.

FLYING IN DREAMS.

A Sensation Like That Which Sometimes Precedes Death.

The sensation of flying is one of the earliest to appear in the dreams of childhood. It seems to become less frequent after middle age. Beausais states that in his case it ceased at the age of fifty. It is sometimes the last sensation at the moment of death.

To rise, to fall, to glide away has often been the last conscious sensation recalled by those who seemed to be dying, but have afterward been brought back to life. Pteron has noted this sensation at the moment of death in a number of cases, usually accompanied by a sense of well being. The cases he describes were mostly tubercular and included individuals of both sexes and with athletic as well as religious beliefs.

In all the last sensation to which expression was given was one of flying, of moving upward. In some cases it was peaceful, in others painful. In one case a girl died clinging to the bars of the bed, in horror of being borne upward.

Pteron associates this sensation with the similar sensation of rising and floating in dreams and with that of moving upward and resting on the air experienced by persons in the ecstatic state. In all these cases alike life is being concentrated in the brain and central organs, while the outlying districts of the body are becoming numb and dead.

Dream flight, it is necessary to note, is not usually the sensation of flight of a bird or an insect, and the dreamer rarely or never imagines that he is borne high into the air. Hutchinson states that of all those whom he has asked about the matter hardly one has ever known himself to make any high flights in his dreams. One all the time flies low, with a skimming manner, slightly, but only slightly, above the heads of pedestrians.

Beausais from his own experience describes a typical kind of dream flight as a series of light bounds at one or two yards apart. Each bound clearing from ten to twenty yards, the dream being accompanied by a delicious sensation of ease and movement, and at being able to solve the problem of aerial locomotion by virtue of superior organization alone.

Lafayette Freeman somewhat similarly describes in his "Standardized" a typical and frequent dream of his own as a series of bounds in long parabolic curves, rising to a height of some twenty feet and always accompanied by the sense that a new power had been revealed, which for the future would be a permanent possession.—Atlantic.

Wen His Wander.
Mrs. Somerville, the great methodical and scientific writer, had to a great extent the power of concentration and became so absorbed in her task as to be unconscious of what was going on around her. Dr. Somerville told Harriet Martineau that he once laid a wager with a friend that he would abuse Mrs. Somerville in a loud voice to her face and she would take no notice, and he did so. Sitting close to her, he confided to his friend the most injurious things—that she roused, that she wore a wig and other such nonsense, uttered in a very loud voice. Her daughters were in a room of laughter, while the startled lady sat placidly waiting. At last her husband made a dead pause after her name, on which she looked up with an innocent "Did you speak to me?"

Earthquakes Bad Progress.
Japan has a great number of waterfalls which would be of material value in the development of the country, but the reason these valuable sources of power are not being developed is because of the danger of earthquakes which is constantly confronting the people. More than once within recent years have steps been taken with the view of constructing dams in order that these falls might be utilized when some demonstration of the earth has given warning of the danger of such a step and the promoters have been forced to abandon or greatly modify the proposed improvement.—New York Press.

His One Regret.
"There's no use trying to deny it," remarked Dr. DeFlatt, "this is the worst case we've had yet. These positively isn't a decent thing to eat on the table."

"That's right," rejoined DeFlatt. "But," continued his wife, "there's one thing in her father's case that can't be beat when it comes to washing."

"Why we can't eat the washing," sighed the hungry husband.—Chicago News.

A Judicial Reproof.
A justice once reproved a would be suicide thus: "Young man, you have been found guilty of attempting to drown yourself in the river. Only consider what your feelings would have been had you succeeded."—Green Bag.

Wise Rosalind.
Reginald—Darling, I see by the papers that a food expert says that it is possible for a family to live on $4 a week. Do you think it possible?

Rosalind—No, dearest, but I'll be a sister to you!—Cleveland Leader.

One Man's Theory.
"No, I don't think women will ever succeed as railroad engineers."
"Why not?"
"They would lose too much time holding up their trains at crossing."—Boston Transcript.

It is not what we take up, but what we give up, that makes us rich.—Beecher.

Big Business.
For several weeks a St. Louis manufacturing concern has had a force of salesmen in Madison county offering a range to the farmers, and they have disposed of many. The people never seem to think that the same class of goods can be purchased at home for less money and at the same time they are sending thousands of dollars out of the county, that very little, if any, will remain here. These people pay no taxes to Madison county nor a license to offer their goods for sale. Some people think if they can buy on credit it is easy sailing, when the price they pay always includes a good stiff interest on the money that the firm is "floating."

Catastrophe Surely A Dangerous Disease.
Thousands of people allow catastrophe to slowly undermine the whole system until a serious disease develops—sometimes consumption.

People who have catastrophe should use every effort to get rid of it, but should above all adopt a sensible method.

Stomach dosing, sprays and douches won't cure catastrophe because it is a germ disease, and the germs must be destroyed before the disease can be conquered.

HYOBI is the most suitable cure for catastrophe because it reaches every part of the system and gets where the germs are. You breathe HYOBI and as you breathe over the inflamed membrane the germs are destroyed and the disease is cured.

Why Is It?

The attention of the Climax has been called to a very disagreeable state of affairs on Laurel Street and Breck Avenue. Some time ago concrete placements were put down by property owners after being ordered by the city, and the residents claim that the trash, accumulating from the work last year, has been removed by the city, but is clogging the gutters and presents an unsightly appearance. If the city is guilty of allowing this to remain, there is probability of a suit and the Climax hopes it will be adjusted at once.

Prominent Elk.

Hon. J. A. Sullivan, has been apprised of the death of his good friend Judge Roberts, which occurred several days ago at Rochester, N. Y. Judge Roberts was one of the leading Elks of the county and served with Mr. Sullivan a few years ago on the committee appointed from the Grand Lodge of the United States to form the constitution and by-laws of this great fraternal order. Judge Roberts was a close friend of the Richmond attorney and had planned a visit here within a few weeks. He had just completed a canvass for re-election to high office within the gift of the Grand Lodge and intended to come to Kentucky to recuperate.

KEEPING the quality of your goods a secret is what you accomplish when you don't advertise them.

You know they're best; so do a few others! But the general public—do they know? Tell them! Don't keep it a dark secret.

Farm News

Items of Interest to the Farmer, the Grover and the Stockman.

A 4-horse power traction engine has been received at J. H. Haggins' Elmendorf farm in Fayette county to be used in plowing. It will pull about twenty plows arranged in a row. All the plowing at Elmendorf will be done with this engine.

Blat Cohen will have in his string this year Price Roe, a three-year-old bay stallion by Hounston Price, out of a Chester Dure mare; Kentucky Choice, Edna Mae, Gypsy Dare, Bourbon Star, Knight Queen and several others.

The rainy weather prevented a good horse show Monday. Horses owned in the city were present, but many from a distance failed to get in. Robt. Walker, who entered his horse Lord Rion, by Ari is the greatest in the county, was present and also had his fine pony Cleo out. He is one of the loveliest ponies ever seen here and the season has been rushing.

As the result of a deal consummated last week Mr. Joseph Boggs, transfers his farm near this city to Simon Turpin and Mr. Turpin disposes of his newly acquired place near the L. and N. depot in the deal. A cash consideration is also named in the transfer. Mr. Boggs will remain on his farm until next January. There are 230 acres in the farm and the price was not given out, but is said to be a good one.

The miserable day and a slump in the live stock market, was keenly felt at the Richmond Stock yards Monday and the markets were dull. There were about $50 cattle on the market, says Manager Emory averaging from 5 to 7 cents. About 300 stock hogs sold from 6 to 7 cents. Mules were few and only two or three sales were reported.

The March weather was disagreeable, but the ground remained in excellent condition for plowing and consequently the farmers are away ahead in this department. Very little oats has been sown, but it will not injure the yield if it is put in within the next few days.

R. C. Mason, sold to L. W. Downey, of Lexington, a pair of fine six year old mules last Monday for $800.

William Wagers shipped 105 hogs to the Cincinnati markets last week brought at about 8¢. He claims the market is demoralizing local trade and the commission houses have notified local buyers to buy low for future delivery as there is liable to come a big slump. Denton & Evans also shipped a load to Cincinnati purchased at same price. Just now the livestock market is exceedingly slow with very little prospects for a good upward turn.

$20 to Insure Living Colt

Money due when colt is foaled, mare parted with or bred to other stock.

This horse stands 15.3 at coming 3-years-old. Is a rich chestnut, with white hind legs to hocks, star and nip. He has plenty of action, substance and style and has demonstrated that he is a real type of show horse. This colt is royally bred, as his pedigree will show the following crosses: Rex McDonald, Black Squirrel, Stonewall Jackson, Blue Jeans, Gray Eagle, Mark Diamond. Also a cross of thoroughbred combined with two crosses of Peavine. With such breeding and markings, this horse is certain to get fancy colts.

Officers Elected.

Richmond Commandery No. 19, Knights Templars, elected its officers last evening to serve during the ensuing year, and enjoyed a light lunch after the election. On account of the lateness of the hour, the climax was unable to give the new officers in this issue.

Fire Alarm.

The fire department made a run last Thursday morning to the house on Fifth street, near the L. & A. depot, owned by Lyman Parrish and occupied by a family named Peels. The blaze started from a defective flue, but the prompt work of Chief Daugherty and his men extinguished the blaze before serious loss. The damages will reach about $300 covered by insurance.

Billy Coming.

William Jennings Bryan, the great Commoner, is expected to come to Richmond on the 20th to deliver his famous lecture, "The Prince of Peace." It will be under the auspices of the Normal school lecture course, but on account of the popularity of this great man, the opera house may have to be engaged to accommodate the crowd that will no doubt hear him.

Growing Better.

Referee in bankruptcy, E. T. Burnam, says Madison is the best county in the state and he can prove it. During the past five years in which he has served in the above capacity, only three bankrupt cases have come into his hands from this county, while Clark, Montgomery, Garrard, Lincoln, Jessamine and Boyle they come in with much regularity.

Another Raid.

Deputy Collectors Ben Herman and William McCoy and U. S. Marshal Griffith made a big raid on Sturgeon creek in Lee county, last week, and succeeded in destroying a 200 gallon still of beer. Warrants were issued for the owners, who are known to the officers, but who took to their heels when the raiders arrived unexpectedly on the scene. Sam Allen, John Gibson and Bettie Gibson, were also arrested for unlawfully selling liquor in that county.

Hold Services.

In response to a request from the officials of the American Bible Society, Governor Willson has asked all churches of the state to hold special services on April 23rd, in celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the King James version of the Bible, which was translated in 1611. No greater event could be celebrated and all good people will commend the Governor for his action and make it a point to help make the celebration in a measure commensurate with its great importance.

Installation.

The officers chosen several weeks ago by the Richmond Lodge of Elks to serve during the ensuing year, will be officially installed next Friday evening. A large attendance is hoped for, as it is one of the most important meetings of the year. R. B. Terrill will retire as Exalted Ruler and be succeeded by William S. O'Hann.

Minor.

A telegram received here last week announced the death of A. B. Minor, of Boyle county, father of Mrs. S. O. Griggs, of Doyleville, whose husband is postmaster at that place. Mrs. David Brooks, of Ford, is also a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Griggs and Mrs. Brooks attended the funeral Saturday. Mr. Minor died as the result of a gunshot wound.

Levied.

Deputy Sheriff "Trim" Deatherage never lets a delinquent taxpayer get loose from him without levying on some article of value that will satisfy the tax debt. Charles Stone, of color, who has been indebted for some time to the county for poll tax, arrived in Richmond last Saturday evening with a gallon jug of Winchester "muzzle." Sheriff Deatherage, after taking him to the jail, levied on the jug and sold it for $1.00, which satisfied the tax debt. The jug was a fine one and was sold for more than its value.

High Compliment

Paid to Prof. Bridges, the New Supt. of City Schools, to Succeed Supt. Coates.

The Trigg County Record, published at Cadiz, has the following: Prof. D. W. Bridges, formerly of this city, and son-in-law of Mrs. M. H. Jago, of this city, has just been elected to the superintendency of the City Schools of Richmond, Ky. There are 1,700 pupils in the school, with a force of twenty-eight teachers. For several years past Mr. Bridges has been at the head of the schools at Lancaster, Ky., and could have remained there, but accepted the position at Richmond for the reason that it is a better position in that the salary is better and the field of work is broader.

In speaking of the matter, the Lancaster Record says Prof. Bridges this very high compliment: It is with sincere regret that the Record learns that we are to lose Professor D. W. Bridges as the Principal of our Graded School.

Professor Bridges has been appointed Principal of the High School at Richmond, Ky. He has tendered his resignation to the local Board of Trustees, which has been accepted, as the time has come when it is his duty to stand in the way of Mr. Bridges improving his financial condition. It is their only regret that they did not feel able to hold him in Lancaster.

Prof. Bridges, we think we can say without fear of contradiction, is one of the best educators ever in Lancaster. He has done more to elevate and improve the Lancaster Graded School than any other man who has ever been at the helm.

It will be a hard matter to secure a man who will fill his place in an acceptable manner, and with such general satisfaction as he has given.

He was popular alike with the trustees, the faculty, the children, the patrons and the public.

While we regret to lose him from Lancaster, yet we take great pleasure in commending both Professor Bridges and his estimable wife to the people of Richmond.

Will Celebrate.

Uncle George Deatherage and his wife, two of the oldest and most respected of the colored population of Richmond, will celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding on next Saturday evening at their home on east Main street. They have issued many invitations and their friends are preparing to give them a big time.

To the West.

Mr. Jay Ballard left this week for Torrington, Wyoming, where he will make his future home. His mother has been in that state for some time. Mr. Ballard will go to the community where Richard Colyer resides and will lease a big ranch. He will have a very tiresome trip from Richmond, as he will make the entire distance in the car with his live stock that he is taking with him.

Opera House.

Miss Marie Harding, the charming soprano and Earl & Reed, the champion singers and dancers, will be the attraction at the opera house tonight. Manager Baxter will close the opera house all next week, with the exception of Thursday evening, when a one night stand show is billed. The cause for the closing is to give a force of paper hangers and fresco artists a chance to make some needed improvements.

Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court is holding its regular semi-annual meeting this week and a large volume of business will be disposed of. Salaries for county officers will be allowed at this session and the levy for county purposes will be made. It is likely that there will be no change in the levy, excepting for the school fund. Supt. John Noland claims he fell short last year, in spite of the fact that economical methods were used and has asked the court to give him a little more money this time.

Look Out.

Hunters throughout the county should remember that the law in Kentucky governing the killing of wild duck, snipe, wild geese and other aquatic birds, went into effect on April 1st, and a heavy fine is liable to those who violate it. Game Warden Bailey claims that there has been violations, which he thinks is chiefly due to ignorance, but as ignorance is no excuse with the law, there is liable to be several nimrods given a stiff fine.

Land Deals.

R. C. Scholter to Perry Moberly, 15 acres in Kirkville tract for $100.00; J. T. Dillman to W. T. Elvich, 8 1/2 acres in Madison tract for $750.00; W. H. Douglas to G. Dawson, 1 acre in Kirkville tract for $150.00; Steve Green to Peter Carpenter, etc., 75 acres in Ellis Yates district for $200.00; S. L. Williams to Bertha Simpson, about 2 acres in Glade district for $275.00; Master Commissioner Harvey Green, 150 acres in Union district, for $7,989.00; L. Foley, etc., to Abraham White, 3 acres in Glade for $21.

In Bunches.

The spring term of the Normal school opened yesterday with a rush, and the dormitories are crowded for room and many pupils are boarding in the city. Every train arriving since last Saturday has brought from ten to fifteen young ladies and gentlemen with eager desire to obtain sufficient knowledge to enable them to teach in the rural schools of the state and otherwise at themselves for the most strenuous duties of the "Secretary of the Peace." Mr. Robertson, who has been here for some time, has been selected the suitable for recruiting the people, and making them get out and study. The school is a fine one and is a great success. Woods Spoke

Ex Mayor C. E. Woods and Rev. Father Beeler, a noted Catholic Priest of Cincinnati, spoke to a big crowd in Fat mouth last Monday on the local opinion question. Mr. Woods is besieged by requests from all over the country, where there is a fight against the open saloon, to speak.

Firm Changes.

The firm of Turpin & Todd, contractors, has dissolved partnership by mutual consent. Judge Turpin, of the firm, has associated himself with Jeff Stone and will continue the business, and Mr. Todd will go in for himself. All are well known and will get a good share of the public patronage.

Free Lecture.

Rev. E. B. Barnes will lecture at the Christian Church to-night beginning at 7:30 O'clock on "Erasmus," who was one of the greatest men that ever lived. He was famous as a scholar and theologian and the founder of the scientific method of investigation. He deserves to be remembered by every generation and a large number should come out this evening.

New One.

Mr. D. B. McKinney, formerly in the grocery business here, has purchased the grocery store of Tate & Son, on Main street, and will continue the business. He is well known and the new firm should be a prosperous one. Mr. Cecil Trayner, as head clerk for the old firm, will remain with Mr. McKinney. Mr. Tate and his son, Mr. Elmer Tate, who have composed the firm have not decided just what they will do.

After Lewis.

President Herrington of the Base Ball Club has very likely closed a deal with "Conny" Lewis, the well known Manager, to take the local club this year and make a winning team. Mr. Herrington has been after Lewis for sometime. He has been wintering in Jacksonville, Fla., and a contract is expected to be closed either to-day or to-morrow, as Lewis has signified his desire to come here.

Reunion Rates.

The L. and N. has announced special low rates to Little Rock, Ark., to the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans Association, which meets in that city May 15 to 18 inclusive. Round trip tickets on sale May 15th, 16th and 17th good returning until May 23rd, with privilege of extension of return limit to June 14th upon payment of 50 cents. The fare from this city is $12.05. It is likely that a goodly number of the "vets" from this section will attend.

Close Call.

Mr. E. T. Burrman came very near seriously injuring himself one day last week at his home on Lancaster Avenue, while in the act of descending the steps leading to the cellar. His foot caught in a piece of cloth that had carelessly been thrown on the steps. He momentum of his body caused him to pitch forward heavily to the concrete floor. He was painfully bruised and for two days could hardly get about the house. He says it was a narrow escape.

Dog Snow.

Madison county owners of fine dogs, of all breeds, are interested in the coming dog show, which will be held in Lexington beginning next Tuesday and continuing four days. A beautiful silver cup, valued at $50, is now on exhibition in the window of T. J. Moberly, which will be given to the finest looking dog entered from Madison county, regardless of breed or age, and a number of prizes have already received. These prizes will be presented to the winners at the dog show, which will be held in Lexington beginning next Tuesday and continuing four days.

HINDU FUNERAL PYRES.

Burning the Dead at Benares a Careless and Calous Rite.

Describing the burning of the dead by the Hindus of India at Benares, Price Collier in Scribner's Magazine says:

I have been present at these burnings. The bodies are brought in on a frail litter. A pile of logs is built up, held in place by four iron stanchions. The body, with the head uncovered, is placed on the logs, more logs are piled on top, the litter is broken up and added to the small fagots underneath and the fire lighted. There are various ceremonies connected with the rite. The body is carried several times around the pile before being placed upon it. The nearest relatives walk around the pile with a jar of water, letting it drip down as he goes till of a sudden he dashes the jar to the ground, breaking it to pieces—a symbol of life, everywhere. At a certain moment, too, the skull is fractured by the nearest relative to allow the easy escape of the spirit to another world. Where the deceased is rich the fire is made of costly and sweet smelling wood, sandalwood and the like, and the ceremonies are more elaborate and more prolonged. No doubt it is the ideal way to dispose of a dead body, but when I have seen it done here it seemed to me a callous and a careless rite.

I have noticed all over India the absolute indifference of the natives themselves to the pain and deformities and maladies that are displayed in an excuse for a life. It is not the satisfaction of our western Indians, who thought it dishonorable to show fear or to shrink from pain, but an imbedded indifference, a numbness to this particular influence.

HER NEW GOWN.

It Was Comfortable Even If It Didn't Hang Just Right.

Miss Amanda Jones, who possesses the artistic temperament in a very high degree, is as careless as a fly of the dress she wears. Not long ago, being away from home and far from the watchful eyes of her family, she selected and purchased an evening gown for herself and wore it on several occasions with great comfort and satisfaction. Shortly after her return to her home she was invited to a reception and decided that it would be a good opportunity to wear her self-selected gown. Accordingly she put it on and presented herself complacently for family inspection.

"What is the matter with your dress?" asked her sister, eyeing her critically. "It looks like a piece of old rag," said Miss Jones, with an air of challenge.

"But it doesn't fit," exclaimed the sister, still examining the garment testily. "Is that the way you've always worn it?" was the next question, uttered in a despairing tone.

"Yes, of course. How else could I wear it?" was the response. "And it is so comfortable, with plenty of room in the back for my shoulder blades. And, then, I like a gown to fasten in front. Why, what's the matter?"

"Your sister covered her face with her hands and sat down abruptly. 'Do you see anything wrong with it?'"

"No, no, no," said her sister, shaking her head. "Only, you know, you've been wearing it thus part before," New York Press.

Who Owns the Falkland Islands? Few people are aware of this day that the Falkland Islands are worked in all Argentine maps and geographical as "unlawfully retained by Great Britain." The origin of the dispute was that England after abolishing the islands in 1774 resumed possession in 1820. The Argentine government protested and, as a Stuart Pennington points out in his book on the country, is even today "careful to do nothing which could even apparently recognize the rights of the present possessors."

It was for that reason that it declined a proposal a few years ago to run a line of Argentine ships to the islands.

Work That Tells. The Kind Richmond Readers Appreciate.

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Don't Kidney Pills stands this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in this locality.

People who insisted years ago to resist from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. Can any Richmond suffer longer than it has ever done?

Samuel T. Greene, 1011 Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I can corroborate the public statement I gave in May 1903 in praise of Don's Kidney Pills. I cannot express how much good Don's Kidney Pills did me. In fact, I doubt if I would be alive were it not for them. You may continue to use my name and say that I recommend Don's Kidney Pills highly."

Westminster Chimes

TUBULAR BELL CHIME

The Herschede Hall Clock is a timepiece, a tubular chime, and an article of furniture for home, office, or institution, appeals alike to utility, refinement, and musical taste. The perfect movement insures correctness of time; the solid oak or mahogany case, with classic lines, conforms to good taste; and the melodious tubular chimes, sounding the hours and quarters after the peals of Whittington or Westminster, serve as a pleasing reminder of the passing hour. The fifty styles give ample choice in design, size, and price, all showing the moon's phases in the dial arch. We are sales agents for The Herschede Hall Clock Co. of this city, and will send illustrated catalog on request.
